

What is the connection between Wake County SmartStart and More at Four?

Wake County SmartStart and More at Four are two separate programs. However, Wake County SmartStart administers More at Four in Wake County only. Wake County SmartStart processes applications from families and places children in More at Four classrooms, processes applications from child care centers wanting to host a More at Four classroom and provides oversight and technical assistance to existing More at Four administrators.